NonStop Entertainment picks up Berlinale Forum selected "Burrowing"

Stockholm based NonStop Entertainment has signed on Nordic and Baltic distribution for Swedish directorial debut "Burrowing" (org. title: Man tänker sitt) from production outfit Fasad whose previous efforts include the much hailed "Falkenberg Farewell" and the closing film of the Göteborg film festival this year "The Film I'm No Longer Talking About". "Burrowing" plays at Berlin Film Festival in the Forum section premiering on Saturday February 7th.

Sebastian lives at home with his mother. He is eleven years old. From an elevated spot in the playground, he surveys his neighbourhood. He can see Jimmy who lives with his parents, even though he's got a child of his own. He can see Anders who's just been given planning permission for a new carport. In a hollow where the surface water blends into the brook, Mischa is looking for fish. He came as a guest worker in the seventies but still hasn't left. Sebastian sees the asphalt rotting. He sees hollyhocks eating their way into the foundations causing fractures in the concrete slabs laid directly on the ground. Weakening, confined root space, lack of water and low nutritional values. A break-up can only come through force.

"We look forward to work with another domestic film. Burrowing has an edge that we like and it suits well with our line up of modern high quality films", says Ignas Scheynius CEO at NonStop Entertainment.

"With the good international response that Burrowing has received, it's very exciting to meet the Swedish and Scandinavian audience. We are happy to work with a company which cares about good quality films, says Erika Wasserman, producer at Fasad.

Fredrik Wenzel who was DP and screenwriter on "Falkenberg Farewell" has directed Burrowing together with Henrik Hellström. The Forum places emphasis on young filmmakers that push the limits of the medium and perception itself. NonStop Entertainment will distribute Burrowing in Sweden, Norway, Denmark, Finland, Iceland and the Baltic countries.
