NonStop Entertainment picks up Golden Bear winner HONEY (BAL)

NonStop Entertainment will distribute the Golden Bear Winner 2010, HONEY (BAL) from Turkish director Semih Kaplanoglu.

NonStop Entertainment acquires HONEY from Match Factory and will distribute the film in Scandinavia, Iceland and the Baltics.

HONEY, which won the most prestigious prize at the 60th annual Berlin film festival, the Golden Bear for Best film, tells the sensitive and gripping story about six-year-old Yusuf who sets out on a journey to find his father who mysteriously disappears. HONEY is the third film in the director Semih Kaplanoglu's reverse-order trilogy after EGG and MILK which will also be distributed by NonStop Entertainment.

During the Berlinale NonStop Entertainment also acquired distribution for Sundance winner WINTER'S BONE for Scandinavia, Iceland and the Baltics.

- By securing both the Berlin and Sundance winner 2010, the year has started very well for NonStop Entertainment and we are now looking forward to Cannes film festival 2010, says Ignas Scheynius, CEO at NonStop Entertainment.
