NonStop Entertainment takes acclaimed documentary Roman Polanski: Wanted and Desired to Scandinavia

Sweden based NonStop Entertainment will distribute the Primetime Emmy awarded documentary Roman Polanski: Wanted and Desired in Scandinavia. Polanski is currently in the spotlight with his new feature The Ghost Writer premiering at the Berlinale starting tomorrow, which the director will not be able to attend as he is held under house arrest in Switzerland.

In 1977, Roman Polanski was arrested in Los Angeles on charges he gave drugs and had sex with a 13-year-old girl while photographing for Vogue. Eleven months later, having pled guilty to one count, he fled to Europe before sentencing. This film examines that year-long period, using archival footage of the media frenzy and of Polanski's life before the charges, clips from his films, and contemporary interviews with many of the principles - attorneys, the victim, and Polanski's friends and associates including Nicolas Cage, Michael Caine and Pedro Almodóvar. Polanski remains enigmatic, but portraits emerge of the machinations of justice and of a judge more interested in his image than his word or the law.

Roman Polanski: Wanted and Desired is produced by HBO and BBC and is distributed worldwide by The Weinstein Company and will be distributed by NonStop Entertainment in Scandinavia.
